

ELS Advanced Writing Programme (AWP)

Overview

The exclusive ELS Advanced Writing Programme will help secondary school students (16-18 years) develop competence and confidence in their writing ability.

Developed around interesting current topics and events, this programme aims to build strong language and literacy skills that will help students write compelling and expressive essays.

What You Will Gain

- Learn strategies and skills to write in different styles and genres clearly and coherently
- Develop editing skills to improve your writing techniques
- Get detailed feedback from your instructor
- Use a range of sentence structures, idiomatic language and metaphors in writing
- Use broad, expressive, appropriate and varied vocabulary in writing

Programme Structure

The ELS AWP is an 18 week programme that comprises 3 modules. Students will participate in:

Advanced Writing Lessons

Held once a week over 3 hours, students will learn and be exposed to the various writing genres, styles, strategies and relevant grammatical elements that will empower them to be effective writers.

ELS Online

Students stay connected with their teacher and peers through ELS Online, a learning portal which features personalised eLearning modules (Reading and Writing) that will give students more language practice.
